

THANK YOU!

The Renaissance Group and the Teacher Education Council of State Colleges and Universities wish to thank the conference planning team, TRG's Board of Governors, TECSCU's Executive Committee, and other members for their time, energy, talents, resources and equipment to present this outstanding, engaging professional development experience.

We are extremely grateful to each of you for your continued support of the work of our organizations and for your commendable leadership. The Fall 2012 Joint Conference of TECSCU and TRG is truly an excellent example of promising educational partnerships!

THANK YOU!
