

Call for Nominations!

Renaissance Leadership Award

The Renaissance Group is a national, professional consortium of colleges and universities with a major commitment to the preparation of educational professionals, and to the promotion of exemplary practices, partnerships and leadership that ensure high levels of teaching and learning in all of America's schools. This leadership award is to honor an individual who exemplifies this and meets the criteria below.

Criteria:

A person of significant leadership who has contributed to the area of education

A leader who has ties to The Renaissance Group

A person who has advanced educator preparation with a record of his/her contribution in at least one of the TRG principles.

A leader who has demonstrated collaborative working relationships

Please nominate someone whom you think would qualify for this honor. Submit a two-page letter of nomination and the nominee's curriculum vita to the Executive Director, Dr. Karen Wetherill at wetherill.TRG@gmail.com. These must be received no later than April 30, 2018 to be considered for the 2018 award, which is provided at the fall conference.
